Freaky Lies (A Mystic Caravan Mystery Book 2)

Synopsis

The Mystic Caravan Circus is a place of magic and mayhem. Unfortunately for Poet Parker these days, itâ€™s also packed full of lies. Itâ€™s been more than a week since she found out an unsightly secret: Her boss Max is her boyfriendâ€™s father. Despite giving Max an ultimatum, heâ€™s yet to tell Kade Denton the truth, and thatâ€™s left Parker in a sticky situation. When the circus goes to Nebraska, Poet canâ€™t dwell on her personal problems for long because a body is found in a nearby field and itâ€™s missing arms, legs and eyes. Everyone agrees thereâ€™s something off about the death â€“ other than the obvious, that is â€“ but no one can figure out what kind of force the folks of Mystic Caravan are facing off with next. Between the emotional distress, her best friend Luke threatening to release embarrassing photographs, and a local police presence that is suspicious, Poet has her hands full. Thatâ€™s on top of a new clown that makes everyone suspect heâ€™s up to no good â€“ even as he leaves the female population salivating. The clues come together slowly, and when the end comes, the enemy is someone no one saw coming. What happens when the face of evil looks like a victim? And, more importantly, what happens when all of the lies are eradicated and Poet is stripped bare and forced to tell the truth? Itâ€™s another fun-filled outing for the Mystic Caravan Circus â€“ as long as everyone survives to see another day, that is.

Customer Reviews

I'm really enjoying this new series! There's some similarities in personalities between the main characters of Ms. Lee's books, but they've also got their own things going on. The Caravan's is the supernatural element and the various members of the circus, and especially the relationship between Luke and Poet, all of which makes it a very different sort of series than the others by Ms. Lee. The mystery in this was both surprising and creepy, it definitely took some unexpected twists and turns and I really enjoyed following along and trying to figure it out on my own (and mostly failing, up until the part where Poet started to figure things out). I love the supernatural spin that Ms. Lee puts on things and how the world is explained. I also enjoy Poet's powers and the little glimpses we get into her regular life as a fortune teller and circus manager. The side characters are, as always, awesome. The new clown, Percival, was both entertaining and interesting in the aspect that he provided to the other characters and to the mystery. Thoroughly enjoyed! I'm not 100% sure how I feel about the love story, mostly because I honestly wasn't really happy with how the confrontation went down (minor spoilers ahead, although we all knew it was coming so it's not a super spoiler)...I expected Kane to be upset, everyone did including Poet, but the fact that he seemed to focus on her instead of on Max... yeah, it just made no sense. It seemed like kind of trumped up drama for Kane and Poet to deal with, rather than a real reaction. I think my reaction to it will really depend on what happens in the next book, when we get Kane's prolonged reaction and not just his initial jump.
