María (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

No hay duda alguna de que la novela romántica hispanoamericana por excelencia del siglo XIX, es, por mucho, "María". Ésta es la novela de Jorge Isaacs, uno de los grandes escritores colombianos, nacido en Cali, Colombia, en 1837, hijo de un judío o inglés de Jamaica, y de madre criolla, fue publicada originariamente en 1867. Basada en experiencias del autor, la historia tiene un tono elegante, y narra la historia de los amores trágicos de María y su primo Efraín. La obra de Isaacs está repleta de sensibilidad, ante el lirismo de la naturaleza y de la vida, y de forma ardiente e idealista plasma los sentimientos y posturas del romanticismo literario de la época. © 2011 by 519 editores

Customer Reviews

One of the most beautiful works of Latin-American literature. A young man discovered the power of love when he fallen in love with the virginal Maria. A story to read only to remember how difficult being human can be.

I read this 19th century novel in the original Spanish as part of a class, and purchased the English version to go along with it. It was probably a difficult text to translate because of the flowery language (typical of the Romantic period), but one error stuck out like a sore thumb. Shotguns are often used in deer hunting, especially within confined areas when others may be in the vicinity. They are also powerful enough to kill a jaguar ("tigre" in the text). During two "cacerías" (hunts) in the novel the translator used "rifle" instead of the correct word "shotgun" (escopeta). Such a simple error made suspect the rest of the translation. The English version is also partially abridged, with the chapters of the Spanish text often not coinciding with the English.

Una de las bellas historias de la literatura romántica hispanoamericana, nos lleva a revivir una y otra vez, en el mágico ambiente del Valle del Cauca, la fuerza del amor de Efraín y María. Un libro para leer tan solo por el placer de recordar lo que se puede sentir estando vivos.

Un clásico del romanticismo latinoamericano del siglo XIX que se debe leer, en el se narra la historia de amor de Efraín y María, que personalmente me ha cautivado y me ha desgarrado el corazón, altamente recomendado!!!

The book arrived in good condition and in a timely manner. As a non-native reader of Spanish, I don't have enough information to write in an intelligent manner about a classic of South American Romantic literature. I am reading and enjoying it now. It is possibly too sentimental for modern tastes.

Definitivamente, la historia más romántica, con las palabras más dulces. Es para llorar, tanto por la belleza como por la tristeza. No le pongo cinco estrellas porque esta versión digital tiene algunos errores, aunque se entiende. Es un libro hermoso.

English is my first language but I have a working knowledge of Spanish. I have lived in Cali, Colombia, the home of the author, Jorge Isaacs, and have always wanted to read the beloved story, in Spanish, which is considered a national classic. However, when I received my copy of the book, I was surprised to see that the font was so tiny. I am still, after several weeks, struggling to get through it. I'm not sure I'll finish it because the size of the print is so distracting which makes it especially difficult in a second language.

Una obra clásica del romanticismo, que mucho leímos en nuestra adolescencia y es siempre refrescante volver a leerla y recupera a ese romántico que habíamos dejado atrás. Diego Rodríguez
