this is THE finest collectin of medieval english drama. contains most of the cycle plays not available elsewhere, gives excellent overviews of criticism, and provides historical background and lots of excellent facsimilies of pages, maps on staging, etc.

Here is a helpful student resource with lots of annotation, explanation and a quality layout and order to the manuscripts. The cycles are in a chronological order with lines numbered which I find VERY helpful for citations.

Extensive and wide-ranging treatment of a fascinating subject. This book comes with a helpful translation alongside the Middle English text and clear explanatory chapters to introduce each play and theme. useful for study at all levels of education.

still an old classic
