Vindictus, The Dark Lord

Synopsis

I did not stop to question my motives for trying to protect the demon king. I could not return to my own realm. For better or worse, I was not only stuck in The Thirteenth Gate, but I was officially the unwilling bride of the king of this land. Right now he lay unconscious on his bed, fighting for his life, put there by his own brother, a brother who was now trying to rip the throne from Vindictus's dying hands. I had learned long ago Dante was not someone I wanted to have any power over the people of this land. Vindictus may be ruthless, but he ruled with love. Dante would no doubt rule with the same malice he had shown toward his brother. No, if I was going to be forced to live out the rest of my life in this land, I was most certainly -not- going to bow down to Dante Invectus.

Customer Reviews

I decided to purchase this book after reading a snippet of it on another website. I was able to read the book on my app on my phone and kindle for pc fine, but when I tried to read it my other kindle it was missing the first chapter and half of the second chapter. When I reported this to Customer Service they told me to delete it and repurchase it. If you have the kindle app on your phone I'd recommend reading it otherwise you're gonna be lost as to what is really happening

I received this for an honest review. I really enjoyed how the story came together. The twists and turns in the story kept it interesting. It is a short read, I read it in a couple of hours. There were some grammar and punctuation issues, but not enough to disrupt the story.

Loved it

Great storyline and really fun ending to a short story. Definitely looking forward to seeing more like this in the future!
