Somebody Else's Husband, Again: Rachel's Story

Synopsis

How do you let go of something, youâ€™ve worked so hard to get? Thatâ€™s the question, Rachel asks herself now. For months, sheâ€™s plotted, schemed, and conjured up ways to break up Mike and Tammie and make Mike love her, all to no avail. All of her life, she has been number two, which damaged her already bruised self-esteem but when her life takes a drastic turn, Rachel has to channel all of her inner strength and focus on moving on with her life in a way that will no longer hurt her or others. As Persia continues to deal with Derekâ€™s infidelity, Tammie questions her marriage to Mike, and Sharon is still confused about her love life, Rachel is focusing on finding true love and happiness. As luck would have it, she meets someone that could possibly be the one but he is already married. Rachel is determined not to make the same mistakes and fall into the trap of being just another side chick. This story will take you on a wild ride full of hills, dips, and curves filled with romance, grief, pain, betrayal, and lots of drama all intertwined in one emotional roller coaster.

Ok so I'm a bit conflicted with this book. Rachel was such a raging lunatic set to make Mike hers then doesn't want him. By some weird twist the twins fall terribly ill. Mike loses his mind forgets about working things out with Tammie and now all of a sudden has all of these feelings for Rachel. Ummm what happened to the Mike that was so into making his marriage work. Where is the Mike that could not stand Rachel because of how devious she was. What is with all this cheating then people talkin' bout "but I love you and want to work things out." Uh how about NO!!! These characters are a hot mess no one was true. Tammie became so weak it was just terrible. Like come on now how is she giving the same man that raped and beat her a second chance. Ummmm where they do that at? I'm just saying. What's sad is these people have kids and they are swapping partners like their switching drinks. It's just a mess that ends with Rachel of all people getting a HEA. Crazy to say the least.

I wanted this long for nothing. I didn't understand the turn around of the characters. The only one that stayed true from the beginning to the end was Rachel. Her character never changed. Mike was a joke. No matter what was happening with his twin boys, he still had a WIFE and other kids to make sure they were alright as well. I still don't understand how Tammie's friend didn't understand how she felt or what she was going through. Don't get me wrong, I understand it was a heart breaking situation, but Mike still had a family. No matter how he felt about Rachel, he still had a wife. Mike proved to Tammie she had every right to feel what she was feeling with his actions. Mike never said he loved Rachel, having feeling for someone and loving someone are two totally different things. It's amazing how everyone still thought that after everything, they can still come together and be friends as if nothing had happened? Really...that wasn't a group of adults....they were children. Derek and Persia were a joke...Sharon and Mont were true to themselves. After everything Rachel went through, she seems like the only one that got true happiness in the end. I didn't get it...not worth the wait.

Great read if you love drama and hot sex scenes. I wanted the book to delve more into Rachel's story and childhood.....that is what I thought Rachel's Story would be...more of how she came to be what she is. I love how it ended for Rachel but overall my favorite of this series is still the first book.

Well, written. I swear these books make you not want to have any friends. This was a page turner. And I love how the main character took back the power. I won't be a spoiler but this is definitely worth reading.

OK let me sum up this story, the conniving hoe who deliberately got pregnant by her best friend 's husband and had twins no less and does everything in her power to break up her marriage ends up with a happy ending. PLEASE!! That is crap, the author has shown Tammy to be too weak and forgiving. Glad I didn't pay for this. Rachel is and always will be a slimy thot who can't be trusted.

PATTI DOSS HAS DONE IT AGAIN!! I'll be the first to say, I'm not a fan of lengthy series but LET ME TELL YOU! This one was SO GOOD, I read all 3 installments in a week and then reached out to the Author! I love how "Rachel's Story" brings the reader full circle and gives insight on how each character is stewing in their own special kinda crazy! Then BAM! The author flips the script leaving you sympathizing for our favorite character we all love to hate! Stank azz, trifling Rachel! Bravo! Patti Doss!! look forward to Sharon finding love in Somebody Else's Wife :-))EyeCU Reading Approved & Recommended!

Rachel finds happiness...well karma needs to come along and kick her in the butt. That female was too trifling. I hope she gets a taste of her own medicine. I have no words for Mike only thing i can say was he is no good for any woman...
