interacted with his assistants in the way that he did. It took time for me to warm up to him and even when I did I still thought he was an ahole some times. Willow (KF) did a great job of showing us his growth through his relationship with Olivia and in the end I found that I could end up loving the guy. Our Heroine - Olivia. Hmmmm....I had a like/dislike relationship with her. I'm not sure I saw her as a strong character (Willow/KF's heroines are typically strong leads who can handle their own). On one hand I can understand Olivia's desire to fit in and want to be on equal footing with her friends BUT on the other hand I'm confused as to why she considers the people she spends time with friends. Kimberly I can understand but the others I'm not feeling. She needs more confidence in herself and needs to be happy as she is.. Also, I wish she would have put up more of a fight when it came to her initially falling into bed with Hunter and that she wouldn't have been so ga ga over him. She spoke a lot of big words but the second she was in his presence they all flew out the window. She did stand up to Hunter at times but I still feel she compromised more than what she should. Overall, I did like how Hunter and Olivia came together.
